

"Adventures in Lifelong Learning"

Monday, November 7, 1:30 – 3:00pm
DWN HUB

Discovering What's Next® invites you to the Discover Balance Meeting-Up, "Adventures in Lifelong Learning", Monday, November 7, 1:30 - 3:00pm, DWN HUB, Newton Cultural Center, Room 104, 225 Nevada Street, Newton. The session will be led by Rochelle Kruger, Volunteer Ambassador since 2003 with Road Scholar, the new name for Elderhostel programs.

Road Scholar, the world's leading provider of educational travel opportunities for adults, offers over 7,000 programs annually both in the US and abroad. These programs explore a wide range of topics providing opportunities for continuous learning that helps us stay vital in mind and body. One of the most popular options is the service learning programs which includes opportunities to assist in archeological digs, teaching languages, building homes and schools or tagging dolphins. In addition, intergenerational programs are offered for grandparents and their grandchildren.

Maya Angelou once said, "I have learned that I still have a lot to learn." Join Rochelle and discover what's next for you to learn.

Fee for this program is $5.00 payable at the door. Kindly pre-register for this program by email to info@discoveringwhatsnext.com or phone 617-467-5438.
