Your Future Retirement Income...Will Social Security Be There for Me?"

Thursday, December 1, 7:00pm
DWN HUB

Discovering What's Next ® invites you to join Stephen Richardson, Deputy Regional Communications Director for the Social Security Administration (SSA) in New England, Thursday, December 1, 7:00pm, DWN HUB, Newton Cultural Center, 225 Nevada Street, Room 104, Newton, as he explains the most up-to-date information on social security.

How does social security affect me? How does it work? Will there be money for me? How do I figure my benefits? When do I apply? Join us for this free program to have important questions and concerns addressed.

As a Public Affairs Specialist, Stephen Richardson is responsible for coordinating the Social Security Administration's public affairs/public information activities in the six New England states, spearheading the agency's efforts to educate the American public about Social Security. In 2005, Richardson served as a Capitol Hill Fellow and worked as a Professional Budget Analyst for the Senate Budget Committee in Washington D. C.
