ENCORE CAREER SUMMIT

November 6, 2010 at Lasell College, Newton MA
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Encore Careers provide personal meaning, continued income, and social impact, inviting people to put their passion to work for the greater good.

Discovering What's Next® invites you to a day of Encore exploration and inspiration, featuring Pulitzer Prize winning columnist Ellen Goodman as keynote speaker.

Ellen Goodman

Program

Workshops on four Encore sectors:

Health/Human services, Green, Education/Youth, and Social Entrepreneurship.
Experts and encore careerists will tell their stories of transition.

"Let's Talk Encore:"

a session on transition challenges and how to address them

Closing Panel:

Professor Barry Bluestone, founding director, Kitty and Michael Dukakis Center for Urban and Regional Policy at Northeastern University - to present his research on the projected labor shortage and how people in encore careers can help to solve it

Phyllis Segal, VP Civic Ventures and President Obama's nominee for the Corporation for National and Community Service - to present the national framework for the Encore Careers movement

Doug Dickson, President of Discovering What's Next® - to describe the launch of DWN's Transition to Encore Careers Program

Information on how to register will be coming shortly.

Cost of event: $50; if registered by October 1: $40. Continental breakfast and lunch included.

This day of discovery is brought to you by Discovering What's Next®, in partnership with Lasell College, supported by a grant from Tufts Health Plan Foundation.
